

NIFTY VIEW

Sentiment on the street improved after HSBC in its report stated that Foreign institutional investors warmed up to Asian equities in November as the region recorded net inflows of USD 5.3 billion, out of which India attracted $1.4 billion. The sentiments also took support from encouraging statement of Minister of State for Finance Jayant Sinha that India had the potential to become a $5 trillion economy in the next 10 years, if it grows at an average 7-8%. However, gains remained capped as ratings agency ICRA in its latest report highlighted that the Indian economic growth may have slowed to 5% in the July-September quarter due to a low kharif harvest, a slowdown in exports and muted government spending. Meanwhile, some investors remained on the sidelines and refrained from any buying activity ahead of monthly expiry in the derivatives segment and data on second quarter Current Account Deficit and official second quarter GDP figures due later in the week.
